York-Poquoson Sheriff's Office makes arrests in Vandalism Spree

On January 22, 2007, York-Poquoson Sheriff's Deputies arrested two individuals involved in approximately 53 acts of vandalism involving shooting out vehicle and house windows with BB guns and damaging mailboxes.

Charged were Adam Daniel Conely, 20 years old, of the 900 block of Foxboro Drive in the city of Newport News, and Ryan Timothy Bunn, 19 years old, of the 100 Block of Polaris Drive in Yorktown. Both are currently charged with 7 counts each of Destruction of Property. The investigation is on-going with additional charges pending against both as well as others involved.

The vandalisms in question have occurred since December 1, 2006 and involve the following areas: York Meadows, Patriot Village, Tabb Lakes, Wood Lake, Kings Villa, Heron's Walk, Lotz Acres, Old Port Cove, Running Man, Sherwood Forrest, Wythe Creek Farms, Overlook Point and Woods of Tabb subdivisions.

Ryan Bunn is currently free on a $7,500.00 bond.

Adam Conely is free on a $7,500.00 Bond.

On December 28, 2006, York Poquoson Sheriff's Deputies arrested 4 juveniles on 6 counts each of Destruction of Property to vehicle and house windows shot at and out with sling shots in the York County section of Kiln Creek. The juveniles were stopped at about 4:30 AM by deputies responding to reports of the vandalism's in the area. Three of the juveniles involved reside in Gloucester County and one in Newport News. All four juveniles were released to their parents.

Sheriff J.D. "Danny" Diggs stated, "Citizen Awareness and superb follow-up efforts by our deputies were instrumental in the successful resolution of these crimes." "Several victims reported these crimes while the suspects were still in the area and provided detailed vehicle descriptions which aided deputies in their investigations" Sheriff Diggs added.
